

The little house changed. The foundation was fixed and the little house stood straight.
Anyone who accepts Jesus are forgiven children of God, but the changes don't stop there.
Jesus continues to change us to become more and more like Jesus. Colossians 2:6-33

